MINERS REJOICING.

The Strike So Far Is a Complete Success.

ALMOST EVERYONE IS NOW OUT.

Doubtful Districts Have Swung Into Line and the Shutdown Is Now Complete. Mining Officials Preparing to Extend the Strike Eastward—No Trouble Yet but Fears Felt For the Future.

PITTSBURG, July 9.—It is safe to say that the amount of coal dug yesterday on the Wheeling division of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad would not fill one flat car. Such a complete shutdown as exists in this district so soon after the inauguration of the strike is admittedly a surprise to the people living in that section. A number of miners were at work Wednesday, the majority of them in the pits of the Pittsburgh and Chicago Gas Coal company at Snowden and Gastonville, but today it is doubtful if the diggers at work along the whole line will number 50, all of these at the Gastonville pit of the Pittsburgh and Chicago company.

A careful review of the situation proves the assertion of the miners' officials that the Wheeling division is solidly advocating the strike. All the mines above Finleyville—Anderson, Germania, Hackett, Eclipse and Nottingham—are completely tied up. Five cars were loaded at the Germania Wednesday, but it was with coal which had been lying on the dump since work was suspended last Friday. The Coal Bluff mine of the J. M. Risker company, employing 150 men, is entirely idle today. The big first pool mines of the Robbins company are also completely closed. There was a doubt as to whether or not the Slavs would return to work after their holiday Tuesday, but this has been dispelled, and the foreigners seem as enthusiastic as any on the strike question.

Miners along the line have been anxiously watching the diggers of the Pittsburgh and Chicago company at Gastonville and Snowden. Up till yesterday it was a matter of doubt whether or not they would come out. Vague rumors of the Finleyville diggers threatening to pull them out were floating around, but were not believed to have much foundation. The company, though, was prepared for any move of the kind which might be made, and notices were posted warning all not concerned with the workings of the mines to keep off the property. It is also said that they had a number of special guards on hand to watch the movements of the men.

These men have all been working under the ironclad agreement, and as this meant a forfeiture of 10 per cent of their wages held back since the first of the year by the firm if they voluntarily quit work, the strikers were in doubt as to whether they could be induced to join the movement. At a meeting held Wednesday night, however, it was decided to come out for the district rate and today the miners are practically idle. By their action, it is said, the men will lose nearly $8,000 in per centages.

The miners' officials are elated over their success on the Wheeling division. The mines in that section have without doubt caused the officials not a little worry, for much coal for the Ohio-Pennsylvania trade could have been shipped out of there had the miners remained at work, and it would have very seriously interfered with the general suspension. It is reported that the operators on this division have advertised for men to fill the places of the strikers. If this is true and an attempt is made to resume with nonunion men, it is feared there will be serious trouble. It is not likely, however, that a sufficient number of men can be gotten together to start the mines.

The miners on the Wheeling division apparently have no fears in regard to the length of the strike. A large number of them were asked how long the strikers could stand it without suffering from want. One and all were firm in the belief that all could "scratch along" for several weeks all right. "Well," replied a digger to the question, "the man who owns the pit I work in said once, when we had some trouble with him and won out, that the miners could live on weeds in the summer, and I guess we can. Anyway, we are willing to try it for a right smart spell."

About one-third of the full quota of diggers were at work at the Panhandle mines of M. A. Hanna & Company yesterday. This is an increase over Wednesday, and is due to the fact that the firm posted a notice to the effect that if the men did not return to work at once the money due them on their ironclad contracts would be retained. The amount, it is said, aggregates $4,000. In the first pool the men who were under contract also came out. There is no basis on which to estimate the amount sacrificed by the first pool miners, as the firms agreed to pay 6 per cent interest on the money held back.

The local mining officials, flushed with victory, are now preparing to make a move against the mines of the New York and Cleveland Gas Coal company. They express confidence in their ability to bring these men out before the end of the week, and then the suspension in this district will be complete. Then the strike extension work will proceed eastward. The mines shipping to the seaboard will be attacked. First will come a movement against the mines of the Westmoreland Gas Coal company and the Penn Gas Coal company, and thence the officials will direct their attention to the central Pennsylvania fields. Emissaries of the United Mine Workers of America have been in the latter fields for the past week. They report progress.

From hints dropped by the miners' officials, it is not improbable that a successful culmination of the strike agitation in the soft coal fields will result in the assignment of strike emissaries to the anthracite region. The output of that district is restricted to a stated amount by agreement entered into between members of the operators' organization. The miners' officials think this agreement will be broken and that an effort will be made among the anthracite producers to supply, in part, the need of coal among the bituminous consumers. They are watching this phase of the struggle with great care. Any intimation of increased output among anthracite mines will result in an immediate strike agitation in those fields.

Coal operators dispute the claims of the miners' officials as to the situation on the Monongahela river. "There are probably 6,000 or 7,000 idle river miners," said one, "but they can not be called strikers, as the majority of them have not had work for several weeks. There are now at least 15,000,000 bushels of coal loaded in the harbor and in the pools, and it is not likely that any of it can be sent to the southern markets before fall. Before the last general suspension there was a rise in the river and every pound of coal went out. There can be no coal famine in the home markets with this large supply on hand. Most of this coal can be loaded in cars if the strike is prolonged, and used for the lake trade."

Trying to Settle the Strike.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., July 9.—Joseph R. Bishop, secretary of the state board of arbitration of Ohio, met with the Indiana labor commission in this city yesterday. The commissioners decided to make an effort to hold a joint meeting of the arbitration boards at Pittsburgh next week, at which, with the assistance of the governors of Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and Pennsylvania, it is hoped a settlement may be reached by this tribunal and President Knight of the Indiana miners is hopeful that if this meeting can be arranged, a settlement may be effected. Pennsylvania and Illinois were invited to co-operate.

MURDER AND DOUBLE SUICIDE.

The Bodies of a Man and Wife Found on a Raft, Their Babe in the River.

CINCINNATI, July 9.—William Deer, a lumber man, at 8 o'clock yesterday morning found the bodies of a man and woman, apparently dying, lying side by side on a raft of logs moored to the shore near the village of California, a few miles above Cincinnati.

Near the raft the dead body of an infant was taken from the water. The man and woman were alive, but unable to speak. Both their wrists were cut and bleeding, and other wounds indicated an attempt at suicide.

The man and woman were brought to the city hospital, where they regained consciousness, but begged to be permitted to die. The man said they were out of work and wanted to die. The woman corroborated this, saying her husband gashed himself first with the razor and then she cut her wrists. They had removed everything that would give a clue to their names.

The couple was later identified as George Jacobs and wife Lettie. He was a painter, 53 years old and his wife was but 23 and a daughter of his brother. They were secretly married in Covington, Ky., and were living on Richmond street in this city. Jacobs has been out of work sometime and became very despondent. He and his wife talked of getting rid of the babe and themselves. Wednesday they talked the matter over and determined to leave the babe at the children's home and then kill themselves. He got a bottle of laudanum and tickets to Coney Island, near which place they were found. They changed their minds and took the babe with them. They left the boat at Coney Island, and went to the log raft at California.

The child was a little girl about 1 year old. They both claim that it died in a haymow, but the police believe it was drowned before the father and mother took the laudanum. They swallowed the laudanum and then went out on the log raft to die, but the laudanum did not take effect quickly. Jacobs cut his wrists then with a razor and his wife did likewise. This is all they remember till they were found and brought to the hospital in this city. Jacobs has grown children by his first wife.

Late last night Mrs. Jacobs said that her husband threw the babe in the river.

The records in Covington, Ky., do not show any marriage license issued to the couple and there is much mystery about the case. Their apartments show that both used opium.

Jacobs and his wife will probably both recover. If so they will be charged with murder.

COLUMBUS, O., July 9.—At the meeting of the state executive committee of the National Democrats, the state central committee was instructed to call a convention some time in September for the purpose of placing an independent state ticket in the field. It was also decided to ask the county organizations of the party to put independent legislative tickets in the field.

A Scorching Victim.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., July 9.—Rufus Posey, aged 70, died here yesterday from injuries received by being run over by a bicycle scorching an evening or so ago. The scorching escaped, but an effort will be made to run him down.

WEYLER TURNS BACK

He Decides to Abandon the Town of Bayamo.

THE INSURGENTS ADVANCING.

An Aggressive Movement Being Prepared by the Patriots—The Spanish Forces Greatly Weakened by Sickness—Filibusters Land Another Expedition—An American Prisoner Released.

NEW YORK, July 9.—A dispatch to The Herald from Havana says: Captain General Weyler has at last decided it wise to evacuate Bayamo. He has already ordered the inhabitants to betake themselves to Manzanillo by the Ward line of steamers, Spain to authorize the withdrawal of troops and the burning of the town. The expense of maintaining the garrison there has been heavy, and one for which the end gained did not justify.

So much sickness prevails among the troops in Santiago province and the rebels are so active in that district and roads are in such an impassable state that the strain on the Spanish forces of holding the town is too severe. Columns of men and thousands of dollars might have been saved to Spain and no strategic advantage lost had Bayamo been given up a year ago.

About the time Weyler was making his warlike speech at Santiago de Cuba, a circular was issued from the headquarters of the revolutionary army calling upon every insurgent at work in the country or in towns, to come out and take up arms. The circular stated that the rebels had plenty of rifles and ammunition to supply volunteers. Cuban sympathizers were also told to be ready to co-operate in case the insurgents attacked their towns.

Calixto Garcia and Torres were to look after eastern Cuba. They were directed to spare all the men they could and those under Lacret and Perez have already crossed Jucaro Maron trocha and now well into Santa Clara. The point at which the rebels intend to mobilize is Matanzas. At the present moment there are four or five rebel chiefs with considerable bodies of men in the vicinity of Cienfuegos.

It is not possible to state accurately how many men the insurgents will be able to muster in Matanzas, but a fair estimate is 6,000. To these may be added for aggressive purposes the 4,000 rebels under Castillo in Havana province, and 2,500 under Ducasse in Pinar del Rio.

The Spanish authorities here have picked out the Cubans from among the Competitor prisoners and will give them separate trials. General Lee states that if Spain makes any distinction in the cases of the Cubans he will be bound to interfere.

The trial of Manuel Fernandez by ordinary courtmartial has been fixed for this week. General Lee has not received any notification that the trial will take place. He has stated that he will not interfere until sentence has been passed. The United States, he says, will not permit the shooting of Fernandez.

ANOTHER GOOD LANDING.

Munitions and Supplies Furnished the Insurgents at the Jaruco River.

NEW YORK, July 9.—A dispatch to The Journal and Advertiser from Havana says: An expedition of Cuban filibusters from Florida is reported to have landed on Sunday in Havana province, at the mouth of the Jaruco river. The Spanish gunboat Reina Maria Cristina, which was cruising about the coast, endeavored to intercept the expedition, but without success. When the cruiser arrived at the spot and disembarked her marines they were fired upon and driven to their boats by a strong rebel force in ambush. After a brief bombardment of the insurgent position the warship hurried to Havana for reinforcements. When she returned with these, the filibusters had already left with their munitions and supplies for Castillo's headquarters in the Tapaste hills, closely pursued by Fonsdevila's Spanish column, which had marched overland from Minas to intercept them.

Dr. Augustine Clemente Betancourt, an American citizen, after years of incarceration as a military prisoner in Pinar del Rio and in Cabanas castle as a political suspect, has been liberated and ordered to leave the island, no proofs to substantiate the charges against him having been found. Manuel Fernadez Chiquelero, another American citizen, captured with the insurgents near Jaruco 12 months ago, and since then confined in Cabanas fortress, has been notified to prepare for an early trial. He was present when Govin, the newspaper correspondent, was macheted to death by Ochoa's Spanish guerrillas after his capture.

Members of the Competitor crew complain of the neglect of Consul General Lee, he not having visited them personally for many months. Their petition for aid from the relief fund was not granted. Melton, is especially in great need of clothes.

Pardoned by the Queen.

MADRID, July 9.—The queen regent has pardoned 108 Cubans who had been deported to the Spanish penal settlements at Cautia, Fernando and the Chaffarine islands. The men pardoned will be permitted to return to Cuba.

TOLLEY CAR HELD UP.

Conductor, Motorman and Passengers Relieved of Their Money and Valuables.

CHICAGO, July 9.—Three highwaymen armed with revolver held up a trolley car on the Cicero and Proviso line last night, and robbed the conductor, motorman and the passengers of their money and watches. They secured several silver watches, three gold watches and about $100 in money. They escaped without being pursued. The robbery took place just outside of the city limits.

Within an hour after the holdup in Cicero five highwaymen boarded an Archer avenue electric car at Thirty-eighth street and Kedzie avenue, and after covering the motorman and conductor with revolvers, secured $80, a watch and revolver.

The robbers all wore masks and did their work so quickly that after they had disappeared the motorman and conductor were unable to give a description of them. Twenty detectives were on the scene within 15 minutes after the robbery, but no arrests were made.

TARIFF BILL SENT TO CONFERENCE.

Nothing Else Done in Either the House or Senate.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—The house yesterday sent the tariff bill to conference, Chairman Dingley, Payne (N. Y.), Daizell (Pa.), Hopkins (Ill.) and Grosvenor (O.), Republicans, and Bailey (Tex.), McMillan (Tenn.) and Wheeler (Ala.), Democrats, were appointed conferees. The proceedings were in no wise sensational. This action was taken by means of a special order brought in from the committee on rules. The minority made no objection to it, but protested because the majority refused in advance to enter into an agreement as to the length of time to be allowed for debate when the bill is reported back by the conferees. They also attempted to make some political capital out of the refusal of the majority to permit action on the Cuban belligerency resolution and the bankruptcy bill.

The house spent the afternoon under the special order adopted last week listening to eulogies on the life and public services of Judge Holman. Those who paid tribute to the memory of their departed colleague who began his service in the house 40 years ago, were Messrs. Steel (Ind.), Richardson (Tenn.), Zeno (Ind.), Henderson (La.), Cumming (N. Y.), De Armond (Mo.), Cannon (Ill.), Sayers (Tex.), Miers (Ind.), McMillin (Tenn.), Bromwell (O.), Hunter (Ill.), Robinson (Ind.), Lanham (Tex.), Clark (Mo.), Cox (Tenn.), Wheeler (Ala.) and Catchings (Miss.).

At 5 p. m., as a further mark of respect, the house adjourned.

In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—The session of the senate yesterday was uneventful, the deficiency appropriation bill being considered throughout the day. Among its provisions is one accepting the invitation of France to participate in the Paris exposition of 1900. The bill was not completed up to the time of adjourning. During the day Mr. Berry of Arkansas offered a resolution requesting the president to demand of Spain the release of Ona Melton, one of the Competitor prisoners. The resolution was referred to the committee on foreign relations.

POTTERS GETTING TOGETHER.

Consolidation of the Two Great Organizations.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., July 9.—The first step toward the amalgamation of the two organizations, the National Potters' Brotherhood, the larger organization of the west, and the Potters' National union, embracing eastern potters, was taken in the national convention here last evening.

The resolution to consolidate passed, and the action will doubtless be indorsed by local organizations.

The National Brotherhood of Potters adopted a wage scale for the coming year subject to the action of a commission from this convention and the meeting of the manufacturers to be called in Pittsburgh in about two weeks upon a sliding scale to be governed by the selling price under the Dingley tariff.

There is little doubt but that amicable arrangements will be effected which will prevent future differences between employers and employees.

Held Up and Robbed.

NEW CORVIN, O., July 9.—Morris Houston was assaulted by two unknown colored men on the Chillicothe turnpike yesterday afternoon. Houston had disposed of a drove of sheep and hogs, and had about $55 in his pockets. The thieves dragged him from his horse into a small lane near a woods, where he was held and relieved of his money and also a silver watch. A crowd of men are scouring the neighborhood, in search of the thieves.

The Fight For Life.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 9.—In order to carry on the fight for life, the parents of Theodore Durant will place his photographs on sale. The photographs will show Durant in prison garb taking his daily exercise within the walls of San Quentin.

Business Buildings Burned.

VENDOCIA, O., July 9.—The business portion of this village was almost entirely destroyed by fire, the main loss being D. W. Williams' big dry goods and grocery store, and Cambrian hall. Loss about $15,000, partially insured. Aid was sent from Delphos, but as there was no water to be had, it was of no use. Origin of fire unknown.

Postoffice Safe Robbed.

UPPER SANDUSKY, July 9.—The postoffice was broken into early yesterday morning and the safe robbed of all money and stamps. The safe combination was broken and the lock operated. The plunder consisted of $80 in money and $80 in stamps. The work was evidently done by professional thieves.

DEATHS DUE TO HEAT

Prostrations in Cincinnati and Elsewhere.

TORRID WEATHER YET PREVAILS

At a Number of Places the Mercury in the Thermometers Recorded Over a Hundred—The Heated Zone Extends From the Rocky Mountains to the Atlantic Coast Reports From Various Places.

CINCINNATI, July 9.—The intense heat still prevails, although there has been quite a decrease in the number of fatalities. Yesterday there were only two deaths and 23 prostrations. The fatal cases were:

Mrs. Kate Herwich, Newport, Ky. James Elliot, 414 McAllister street. The prostrations were as follows: Henry Buckels, Philomena Ranchfrank, Arthur C. Taylor, William Fallon, Mary E. Rhegness, Guss Huss, Mrs. Tierini, Charles Maibach, Charles Slicker, Fred Satzmeier, Theodore Hayer, Charles Milbrauch, Mrs. John Cohen, Judge Perkins, Mary Hayden, William Fricker, Rome Sauter, Joseph Rockmore, Paul Mahler, Miss Mattox, Annie Williams, J. S. Beam and Joseph Buhr. Street thermometers registered 97, but the weather office showed a lower temperature by several degrees.

The intense heat continues throughout Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri and Iowa. The maximum temperature was at Marshalltown, Ia., where the mercury touched 107 degrees in the shade. One fatality resulted. Business, especially farmwork, is practically suspended and crops are beginning to wither.

Minnesota and Wisconsin are also receiving a scorching. One death and six prostrations were recorded at St. Paul.

One Hundred Degrees in St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, July 9.—Yesterday was the 11th day of 100 degree street heat in St. Louis. Seven people have died from the heat, one man attempted suicide and there are at least four of the many prostrations which will prove fatal. Following is the list of the dead: Henry Floerke, Henry Bampman, Jacob Herzog, Henry Artkras, William Spillmeyer, Charles Steffell and John Braun. The following prostrations are expected to prove fatal: Henry Dashen, William Shelly, John Sullivan and Oscar Beck. John A. Crouch, crazed by heat, shot himself in the mouth.

Extreme Heat in Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, July 9.—At 2 o'clock yesterday the thermometer registered 97 degrees. Only one death resulted from the intense heat, but there were dozens of prostrations. The temperature out in the state was higher than in this city, Paducah coming to the fore with the highest readings. Three deaths have been reported from the state outside of Louisville, with hundreds of prostrations.

Four Deaths in Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 9.—There were four deaths and 23 prostrations yesterday, four of the latter being probably fatal. The dead are: Martin Varley, prostrated Sunday and died yesterday; Henry Holzkecht, unidentified man, taken to Alexan Brothers' hospital, where he died; Fred Kaiser, committed suicide, excessive heat being given as the cause.

Two Deaths in Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 9.—The hot spell continues here, the official thermometer reaching 96, and prostrations are becoming more general. Patrick Kelly, a well known hotel clerk, and Leonard Cox died yesterday from the heat, and there were at least 10 prostrations besides.

NEW YORK, July 9.—Nine children died suddenly yesterday and their deaths are due indirectly to the heat. Seven persons were prostrated in the streets.

KANSAS MINERS DESTITUTE.

The Average Wages Earned Per Man for the Past Year Is Less Than Ten Dollars.

OSAGE CITY, Kan., July 9.—There is great destitution among the miners and their families in this district. Scores subsist entirely upon the product of their gardens, and many have not bread to eat with the vegetables they thus obtain, while meat is entirely out of the question.

The total payroll of the Carbon company, for 150 men in May was $475 and in June $350, an average per month per man of $2.75. There has been no work this month. The average wages earned per man for the past year is less than $10 per month.

Many heads of families and as many boys as are able are now working in western Kansas harvest fields, but this only affords temporary relief and imposes great suffering upon those so employed, as it is almost impossible for a man who works under ground to work in the hot sun as a harvest hand.

Fanatics Win Again.

NEW YORK, July 9.—The Herald's correspondent in Rio Janeiro says that reports there announce that the fanatics defeated the government troops in an engagement at Canudos. Government officials interfered at the telegraph office, forbidding transmission of news of this event, and instead had a report sent out to the effect that General Savage has captured a quantity of ammunition from the fanatics. The government party has decided not to approve any increased expenditures for carrying on the war.

SENATOR DEBOR denies that he dodged a vote on the proposition to reduce the whisky tax. But the evidence is very strong that he did dodge. When the time came to vote he was not in his seat.

The Frankfort Capital, edited by Governor Bradley's right hand man, hasn't a very exalted opinion of Br'er Sam. Roberts, who managed McKinley's campaign in this State last year. It refers to him as "little Sam. Roberts."

The Danville Advocate advises the National Democrats to "stand on their own bottom" and "avoid all entanglements" with the Republicans. This is good advice, but it ought to have been given before the election last fall.

HER bad news for some of the revenue force. A dispatch from Washington City says:

Senator Prichard, Chairman of the Committee on Civil Service, has been informed that the Civil Service Commission has agreed to the proposition to separate Deputy Collectors of Customs and Internal Revenue from the classified service, and that an order to this effect will soon be prepared and sent to the President.

The Courier-Journal says the friends of John G. Orndorff are pushing him for the goldite nomination for Clerk of the Court of Appeals and are scheming to have him endorsed by the Republicans. "This shows," the C-J. adds, "that the National Democratic nomination is not going a-begging and that when the convention is held there will be spirited rivalry for it." Just where the "spirited rivalry" comes in, it's hard to see, as Mr. Orndorff is the only one seeking the honor.

The statement wired the Times that McKinley said he owed Sapp a debt and proposed to pay it with the Collectorship, will naturally suggest to the decent Republicans and Democrats that they owe McKinley something for this insult to the great Democratic State that gave him her vote last November, and they will pay it too. If McKinley has betrayed Kentucky to the infamous A. P. A. gang for their dishonest support at St. Louis, then McKinley is a plain everyday scoundrel. If McKinley has soiled his hands by a compact with a secret order that is pledged to a violation of the Constitution that guarantees liberty of conscience to all alike, he ought to be impeached.

The above is taken from the Frankfort Capital, a paper generally recognized as Governor Bradley's organ. Bradley was boosted into office by this same "A. P. A. gang."

The Black Diamond.
 The News says: "Arrangements are about completed for the charter of the Dover and Frankfort section of the Black Diamond railroad, and surveyors and map makers will go to work as soon as the charter is secured. The bridge location will be determined first and then work will proceed along the line to Frankfort."

INDIANOLA Tribe, I. O. R. M., will be instituted at Minerva to-night.

A TWENTY MILLION FRAUD.

That is What the Bridal Package in the Treasury Is.

[New York Sun.]

"I hate to shatter a pet delusion by giving the facts in the case," said a former clerk in the Treasury Department at Washington, "but fraud ought to be exposed regardless of consequences, and the greatest fraud I know of is the famous 'bridal package' of the Treasury vaults.

"I say famous, but it isn't famous in a general sense. It is famous only among bridal couples. I don't know why it is, but every bridal couple that go to Washington on their wedding tour—and it seems to me that about nine-tenths of the bridal couples of the country go to Washington—know all about that package and the bride can't rest until she goes through the regular routine connected with it. No visit to Washington by a stranger is complete without an inspection of the Treasury vaults; but if his or her visit is a non-bridal one the fraud of the package isn't played.

"I don't know who it was in the department that first imposed it on a bridal pair, but it went, and it grows in popularity every year. When the couple enter the vault the man in charge, after a few preliminary and perfunctory remarks, reaches upon a shelf, takes down a package of notes, and tells the bride to take it in her hand, if she hasn't asked for it the very first thing. He then tells her that the package contains $20,000,000 in Treasury notes, all in denomination of $10,000 each. The bride is delighted of course, and when she goes back home she talks for weeks about having held $20,000,000 in her hand at one time. The bridegroom can't resist enjoying the same pleasure, and he fondles the package a while, and the pair go away blissful over the experience, while the Treasury vault man tosses the package back on the shelf and chuckles.

"Now this is all simply a gigantic fraud on the young couple. The Treasury at Washington does not hold that amount of money. The bulk of the Government money is at the sub-Treasury in this city. The 'bridal package' is a gay deceiver. It does contain notes to the amount of $20,000,000 of denomination of $10,000 each, but they're not money, because they're not signed. So, instead of having held in their hands $20,000,000, the happy couple have fondled simply a package that represented no more value than the price of the paper and the printing on it. It may be cruel to shatter this pretty delusion, but my conscience forbids me carry the burden of its concealment any longer. Hence these facts."

Solid as a Rock.

The failure of some building associations, like the failure of some banks, only proves the exception and not the rule. In these as in other cases it is simply a survival of the fittest. Come what may we shall always have banks and building associations, and it is right that only the fittest should survive. For about two years the Paducah Building Trust Company has been doing an excellent business here, and has connected with it some of our best business men. Besides, Maysville is represented among its nine directors in the person of Mr. A. D. Cole. We can therefore speak with greater assurance concerning it, and with pleasure we copy the following card in regard to the strength, management and excellent condition of the Paducah Building Trust Company, which we believe will be of interest to the public generally as well as to those who have given it their confidence.

To the Stockholders of the Paducah Building Trust Company: The special meeting of the full Board of Directors having just closed you are doubtless anxious to know what effect the panic in building and loan circles has had and will have upon our company. Naturally applications for withdrawal have been considerable. But we have asked no quarter and for nearly six months the receipts have been largely used to pay withdrawals. This policy we deemed preferable to making loans with the receipts, both because it demonstrated our ability and willingness to pay our obligations and also because in every instance the profits voluntarily forfeited by the panic-stricken stockholders were more than we could possibly have made for the persistent stockholders by making loans. The result is that although our assets have been somewhat decreased, we yet have over $250,000 of assets, and are enabled to declare a larger dividend for the last six months than ever before in the history of the company.

We deem it expedient, however, to attend in the future to the wants of the borrowers, and, therefore, we shall, in accordance with the discretion vested in us by the general law, and also by our charter and by-laws, devote only one-half the net receipts each month to the payment of withdrawals in the order filed, interest on which stock stops when so filed, and devote the other half to loans, both to meet the wants of the borrower as well as to increase our assets.

In conclusion we desire to say that in case the recent decision of the Court of Appeals becomes final, we have arranged our plan to conform to the law as so declared; and, in any event, the Paducah Building Trust Company will continue business, and as heretofore, will afford a safe and profitable investment both to the borrower and to the investor. Very respectfully,

MISSES MAYME AND GERTRUDE COUGHLIN entertained a large number of friends last evening at their home on the Fleming pike. At 11 o'clock dainty refreshments were served. Every one present spent a most pleasant evening on the beautiful lawn.

The Phoenix Hotel Company of Lexington found it necessary to inaugurate a cut of 10 per cent. in the salaries of all its employees in order to meet the present stringency. The cut went into effect on July 1st and is to continue for three months, at the end of which time it is expected that times will be better and the company will be justified in returning to its former scale.

The assignee of the Commercial Building Trust of Louisville brings suit against the concern and against J. C. Caldwell and J. K. Sumrall, of Boyle County, J. R. Williamson of Fayette, and against George E. Boyd, and H. M. Reubelt for a settlement of its accounts as assignee and asks that the advice of the court about numerous cases be given. All stockholders, it seems, who filed their notices of withdrawal before March 15, 1897, were paid in full. The notices of withdrawal from the concern since that date have aggregated $100,000. The suit further says that the outstanding loans amounted to about $325,000. These are secured by real estate mortgages, and by deposits of the stock.

ELEVEN prisoners were sentenced to the Frankfort penitentiary at the recent term of the Bourbon Circuit Court. They are Ben Bradley, wife murder, life sentence; Will Wright and Geo. Henderson, arson—setting fire to tollhouse in Bourbon, twelve years each; Geo. Smoot, horse stealing, stealing the pacer Seven Points, two and a half years; Bob Prather, horse stealing, two years; Sanford Fisher, malicious cutting; Ed. Sharpe, malicious striking; Horace Bibb, malicious shooting, one year each; Clarence Williams, malicious shooting, two years; Cain Lewis, given a life sentence for wife murder, and Elijah Forman, given two years for forgery, were granted a stay of sixty days, and will try for a new trial.

MILLIONS OF PROFIT

May Be Made By the Trusts on Raw Sugar Already Imported. Unless Congress Acts.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—It is understood that Secretary Gage has suggested that a provision like the following might properly be incorporated in the new tariff bill, viz:

That a tax of one cent per pound shall be levied and collected upon any refined sugar, which, after the passage of this act, shall be produced from sugarcane, tank bottoms, syrups of cane juice or of beet juice, melada, or concrete or concentrated molasses, imported into the United States prior to the passage of this act.

The stock of raw sugars in the hands of refiners, it is said at the department, usually does not exceed 100,000 tons. The possession of 600,000 to 800,000 tons of raw sugar, on which an average duty of not more than 85 cents per 100 pounds has been assessed, gives the refiners, it is stated, a promise of a profit of over one cent per pound when the sugar is refined and put on the market; a profit of $12,000,000 to $15,000,000 or more on account of the tariff legislation.

THE TERRIBLE HEAT.

Victims of Sunstroke and How to Treat Them—Some Timely Hints.

[Chicago Times-Herald.]

Intelligent and immediate action in cases of sunstroke or heat prostration will save many lives during the present heated term. The Chicago Health department has issued simple directions for the guidance of the layman offering relief.

There are two distinct forms of sunstroke and their treatment is distinctly different. In one form, "heat exhaustion," which is the milder of the two, the skin is pale, cold and clammy and the pulse is feeble. In this form the patients usually recover, though death sometimes ensues. The treatment is to remove the patient to a cool place or at least out of the direct rays of the sun. Loosen all clothing, especially about the neck. Dash cold water on head and chest, apply spirits of ammonia and hartshorn to the nostrils. In some cases it may be necessary to give small quantities of alcoholic stimulants.

In the other form, heat stroke or insolation, the symptoms are much more serious. The face is purplish, the eyes bloodshot, the veins swollen and corded and the skin dry, hot and burning to the touch. The effects of the sun seem to be most marked on the brain and spinal marrow. The brain becomes so heated that the chest center controlling the production of heat is affected and the temperature rises from the healthy one of 98.5 degrees to as high as 100 or over.

This condition is so serious that a physician must be called as soon as possible. While awaiting the doctor's arrival much good can be done and lives oftentimes saved by the application of ice to the head and spinal column. It will do more good if broken up into small pieces and placed in cloths or rubber bags, but in the absence of these, pieces of ice can be placed about the head and neck.

Workingmen and others exposed to the direct rays of the sun should have their heads well protected, and should wear woolen next the skin. A very useful precaution is a pad of cotton batting or flannel sewed along the back of the under garment over the spine so as to protect it.

He accompanied the local river men up the river to-day on the excursion barge Carrier. There is much rejoicing among river men over the accomplishment of a work so long desired and so frequently delayed of achievement.

SPLENDID WHEAT CROP.

Some Fields in This County Said to be Turning Out Thirty Bushels to the Acre.

The threshers are busy in the wheat fields of this county, and the way the crop is "turning out" is making the hearts of the farmers glad. The yield is one of the largest and finest for years.

A gentleman who was in the Tuckahoe neighborhood Thursday says some fields in that section are turning out as high as thirty bushels to the acre.

If the farmers get a fair price for their grain it will go far towards restoring good times.

Considerable wheat is being delivered already in this city.

FRANKFORT, Ky., July 8.—Commissioner of Agriculture Moore's crop report, issued this morning, says: Wheat—Quality ranks as one of the best crops grown in the State; yield satisfactory, and, in some instances, phenomenal; acreage, 96 per cent.; twelve bushels per acre; average last year, six and one-half.

Corn—Material improvement during the month; 87 per cent, damaged by chinch bugs in western and southern counties.

Oats—Eighty per cent.

The tobacco crop is backward and discouraging; bad stand; suffering from worms; condition, sixty-eight; acreage, sixty-three.

HANDSOME INCREASE.

L. and N's Earnings Last Fiscal Year
Were Over $300,000 More Than Previous Year.

The gross earnings of the Louisville and Nashville for the company's fiscal year ending June 30 last, which have just been compiled by Comptroller Cushman Quarrier, shows that the company earned gross $14,646,576, against $14,324,905 for the preceding fiscal year.

The falling off is entirely in the passenger earnings, which show a decrease of $377,083. The freight earnings for the year show an increase of $321,671, and miscellaneous earnings show an increase of $26,543.

The double track of the Chesapeake ton will be completed in about ten days.

All Causes Have Their Effects.

Since the middle of June we have sold thrice the amount of goods than in the same given time since 1894. Why? Because money is more plentiful, and those that have the coin are apt to go where they get the most and the best for their money.

When times were the hardest and most merchants bought the commonest of goods, we kept on the even tenor of our way, and bought only the highest class of merchandise. We may have missed some sales on low qualities, but we retained our high standard in our various lines, and as our people are now realizing better prices for their products, and money is more plentiful, we are reaping the benefit of our repute for handling

Thursday the Hottest of the Season to Date—Heat Prostration.

Thursday was the hottest day of the season to date.

One thermometer at the BULLETIN office registered 96° and another 98° during the afternoon.

At other places in Maysville, the temperature was over 100° in the shade.

The weather observer at Cincinnati promises no immediate relief, as the far West is sweltering in a temperature as torrid as that prevailing in this section.

At 9 o'clock this morning the mercury was up to about 88°, and the day will likely prove fully as hot as Thursday.

The report that Mr. Charles Simmons, a well-known Cincinnati drummer, was prostrated by the heat Thursday morning at the wharfoat was somewhat exaggerated. He came up on the Courier in hopes of getting some relief by the night ride. He was suffering considerably from the heat, but was able to get about and went back to Cincinnati on the boat.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida street, San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else, then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in coughs and colds. Free trial bottles at J. James Wood's Drug store. ELECTRIC LIGHTING.

About $500,000,000 Invested in the Industry—Large Sums in Electric Roads.

[Exchange.]

In the electric lighting field the total capital invested in the United States was recently given as over $500,000,000. The number of plants, public and private, is over 10,000, says an exchange. The number of motors in use is estimated at about 500,000 and their value at about $100,000,000. The electrical apparatus used in mining is estimated at $100,000,000, and the value of the electric elevator industry will probably not fall short of $15,000,000.

The most important of all the electrical industries, however, is that of electric railways. In this field the investment is very great, and in the United States is represented by a capitalization of over $700,000,000. The number of trolley cars in use is now over 25,000, and these run on over 12,000 miles of track. The electric railways represent more than 90 per cent. of all the street and suburban railroads of the country.

The aggregate of all the capital invested in electric lighting, electric railways and electric power is about $1,500,000,000, and this does not include the value of establishments that manufacture the machinery and apparatus. As many of these are among the largest industrial enterprises in the world, and as nearly all are concerns of considerable magnitude, it is evident that their combined capital will run up into large figures.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whisky nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents per bottle at J. James Wood's drug store.

SENATOR ISHAM G. HARRIS DEAD.

His Last Hours Peacefully Passed Away at His Washington Residence.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—Senator Isham G. Harris of Tennessee died at his residence here a few minutes before 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The senator had been growing constantly weaker for several days past, the intense summer heat which has prevailed, greatly debilitating him and no doubt hastening his end. There were times when he would rally slightly, which gave his family hopes that he would be able to regain strength sufficient to be removed from the city, but his vitality had become too much exhausted to withstand the strain. Yesterday morning the senator revived somewhat, but only temporarily. During the afternoon he sank rapidly and passed away peacefully.

SENATOR HARRIS.

There were present at his bedside when death came his son, Mr. Edward K. Harris and the latter's wife; Representative Benton McMillan of Tennessee; Miss Polk, a friend from his native state, and the members of the household where the senator has lived for some time. Another son, Charles H. Harris, had left the house a short while before death came. Another son, James E. Harris, residing in Tennessee, is expected to arrive in the city before night and a fourth son, Isham G. Harris, Jr., is now on his father's ranch and stock farm at Abilene, Tex., and probably will meet the funeral train when it reaches Memphis, where the interment will be made.

Senator Harris was last in the senate chamber about 10 days ago, but he was unable to stay for any length of time and had to be taken home in a carriage. During the last six months the senator had been able to attend to his duties only at intervals, having been away from the city several times endeavoring to recuperate.

Probably no man in public life has been identified with more of the history of this country than had Senator Harris. He had almost completed his 79th year, having been born in February, 1818, and first became a member of congress in 1849. His congressional career thus began earlier than that of any member of either house, antedating Senators Morrill and Sherman by seven years and Hon. Galusha A. Grow, now a member of the house from Pennsylvania, by one year.

Mr. Harris had, when he was elected to the national house of representatives, already become a man of state reputation in Tennessee, having the year previously served as a presidential elector on the Democratic ticket, and two years before been elected a member of the legislature of the state.

Mr. Harris represented the Ninth Tennessee district in congress for two terms ending in 1853, when he declined a renomination. He then moved to Memphis, where he has since resided. Here he was engaged in the practice of law until 1857 with the interruption necessary to allow him to become a presidential elector in 1856. He was three times in succession before the war, beginning in 1857, elected governor of his state, and was serving in that capacity when the war broke out. He took a pronounced stand for the southern Confederacy and was known as one of the southern war governors. The vicissitudes of conflict rendered a frequent change of residence necessary and he was often with the army in the field. He attached himself at different times to the staffs of Generals Albert Sidney Johnston, Joseph E. Johnston, Beauregard and Bragg. Albert Sidney Johnston fell from his horse into Senator Harris' arms when he received his death wound.

After Lee's surrender Mr. Harris was one of a small party of political refugees who escaped to Mexico, going across the country on horseback. Parson Brownlow, who had become the military governor of Tennessee, offered a large reward in a characteristically worded poster for the capture of his predecessor, but the latter remained absent from the country until his return was safe. He remained in Mexico for several months, going thence to England, where he resided until 1867, when he returned to Memphis and resumed his practice of the law.

Mr. Harris was allowed to follow the pursuits of the private citizen until 1877, when he was elected to the United States senate, defeating Hon. L. L. Hawkins, Republican. He has remained a member of the senate ever since and would have completed his 20th consecutive year in that body on the 4th of next March if he had lived to that date. He had been four times elected to the senate, the last time in 1895, and his term would not have expired until 1901.

Senator Harris had received almost all the honors that the senate could bestow. He was the president pro tempore during the Fifty-third congress, a leading member of the committees on finance and rules and also of the Democratic advisory or steering committee. He has long been awarded by common consent the front place on both sides of the chamber in parliamentary questions and in recent years he had been more frequently heard in expounding these questions than in the elucidation of other subjects. He was possessed of a very positive manner and never failed to throw into his statements concerning parliamentary practice the fullest force of which he was capable. His language on these and other occasions was generally so uncompromising that he was regarded by those who knew him not as a man of little feeling. That, however, this was not true and that the contrary was true none are now so willing to testify as his opponents in the senate, who unite in attributing to him a warm heart as well as a just spirit and brilliant mind.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 9.—The Mississippi river at this point is within six inches of the highest mark reached in the unprecedented floods of April last. Between 4,000 and 5,000 men are out of employment as a result of the necessary closing down of the saw mills and there will be heavy losses on logs if the rise continues. The new power dam has been damaged again, repairs resulting from the spring freshets being in progress, and the work being wholly unprepared for this unexpected flood.

A simple minded country man strayed into a Cleveland art store the other day and appeared to be much struck by a picture entitled "Lion, After Gerome." "Well," said the proprietor after awhile, "you seem to be pleased with that picture."

"Yes," the old gentleman replied, "I do sort o' like it. That's a powerful ugly lookin' beast thar, and I swon I don't know's I blame Gerome very much for gittin' out o' the way."

"Getting out of the way?" repeated the proprietor. "What do you mean by that?"

"Why," the visitor explained, "it says 'Lion after Gerome,' don't it? Well, Gerome ain't nowhar to be seen, so I s'pose he must be hidin' behind one o' them stuns."—Cleveland Leader.

The things that people see are inside of them and not outside. No two people see the same thing exactly alike. One woman may look out at a beautiful landscape and see all the beauty and restfulness and grandness that there is in it. Another one will look out at the same scene and see nothing. The man who is perfectly well and vigorous enjoys life to the full. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes people well. There isn't anything miraculous about it—it is the most natural thing in the world. It simply puts the digestive organs, the stomach, the liver, the bowels, in perfect order and thereby makes the blood pure and rich. All diseases live and thrive on impure blood. Keep a stream of pure, rich, red blood flowing into a diseased spot, and the disease will not stay. A man lives on rich, pure blood, and the disease dies on it.
